NOTIFICATION OF INCURSION

An incursion has been organised for Stage 1 students – Super Pollinators: Aussie Native Bees. This incursion is in line with the geography syllabus outcomes which identify the active role of citizens in care of places.

Where: Quakers Hill Public School Hall

When: At this point the timetable is as follows:

Wednesday 19th June 2019 -1H+1M+2L+2N+12HM

Thursday 20th June 2019 - 1S+1D+12WA+2A+2K

Friday 21st June 2019- 1B+1A+2Y

Cost: $11.00

Timetable variations may occur due to numbers attending.

Students will learn about the bee species that live in their area, each build a bee hotel for solitary native bee species, get to view a collection of preserved local insects (including bees) under a magnifying light.

The group will be supervised by: Class teachers

Additional Information:

There are more than 200 species of native bees in Sydney area, vital for pollination of crops and biodiversity function. An environmental educator will be visiting to spread the buzz about Aussie Bees. The beauty of this workshop is that kids feel empowered - they are able to share their new knowledge with family and friends - the result being that kids are educating the community and will make better environmental decisions as adults. The workshop also meets the NSW school curriculum outcomes.
