Education Week 2019

“Every Student, Every Voice”

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

Education Week recognises the variety of achievements by all NSW public schools. This year’s theme “Every Student, Every Voice” celebrates student empowerment and how the NSW public education system provides students with the skills they need in order to have and express a voice during their own educational journey as engaged global citizens.

Please refer to the information below about the week’s activities.

 Monday 5 August – NAIDOC Celebrations ‘Voice, treaty, truth’

- 9:45am Join us for a whole school NAIDOC day assembly on the field run by Jie from Liven Deadly and some of our Quakers Hill parents.

 Tuesday 6 August – Multilit Reading Program

- 8.40am – 9.10am If your child attends the Multilit Reading Program as a tutor or tutee, come along and chat to the teachers and see the wonderful things your child participates in.

 Wednesday 7 August - Open Day

- All day Book Fair in the Library opened all day (except during the Assembly)
Come along and buy a quality book for your child.
 - No Multilit Reading Program today
- 8:45am – 9:30am School Parliament Café ($2 donation)
An opportunity for parents and community members to enjoy a cup of coffee and some biscuits in the hall.
- 9:30am – 10:00am Open classrooms
All classrooms will be showcasing some of the wonderful learning that occurs each day. Parents are encouraged to participate in lessons with their child.
- 10:15am – 11:00am Whole School Creative and Performing Arts Assembly
Join us under the COLA to watch some of our Creative and Performing Arts groups showcase their talents.
